

Exchange

How to remove Exchange from Active Directory

Remove Exchange Server with ADSI Edit

Log in to the domain controller and navigate to the. Open and

Remove Exchange Server attributes

Once opened, right click ADSI Edit and click

Exchange

Select and click .

~~With right-click on the object, click on the context menu, click on the option to delete the object. The screen will look like the following:~~

~~If the following both the objects in ADSI Edit. The screen will look like the following:~~

Exchange

Fold the connection Configuration in ADSI Edit. We don't need it

Remove Exchange Server security groups and system objects attributes

Bring the AD to a consistent state. Remove the Exchange Server security groups and system objects attributes

Right-click and click

Exchange

Select and click .

~~Click to delete this object, confirm. With a single click you can delete~~

~~We can confirm in ADUC that both the OUs are deleted.~~

Exchange

We are going to remove Exchange Server from Active Directory in

Remove Exchange from Active Directory

Click on the Computers (SDUG) link to click in the Active Directory and

Server, it is showing if you are sure to delete the Exchange

Exchange

Remove automatically generated Exchange user accounts

Exchange will still show up in the DirSync tool if it has not been removed from the Active Directory. To do the following steps and click the to continue DirSync tool.

- Right-click on the Exchange account

After removing it will show like the following.

Remove Exchange Server from DNS

~~Document Disclosure Exemption: School for Education, Standards, and Accountability~~

~~Exchange Server Right-click zones. If you have any configured for~~

Exchange

After removing the zones, it will look like the following screen.

Remove DNS records from DNS. For example, the first one and

Conclusion

Remove DNS records from DNS. For example, the first one and

Unieke FAQ ID: #1077

Auteur: diode

Laatst bijgewerkt: 01-02-2021 16:22